

Name: _____ Date: _____

Scavenger Hunt

The questions in this scavenger hunt focus on the illustrations in the textbook: photos, drawings, and graphics. For most questions, a page number is given. When you find the answer, write it in the space provided. Make sure you spell the word correctly. Most of the answers are one or two words long.

1. How many parts are in the book? _____ How many chapters? _____ There are four other sections in the book. What are they? _____

2. What icon alerts you to "little known historical facts"? _____
3. What Manitoba town is represented on page 9? _____
4. According to the map on page 3, what ancient society in South America will you be studying? _____

5. What does the woman wearing the large hat have in the boxes? (page 13)

6. What sort of team is pictured on page 19? _____
7. Which player is holding the highest card? (page 20) _____
8. When did Canadian women get the right to vote in federal elections? (page 26)

9. (a) What is the graphic on the upper right-hand corner of page 29? _____
(b) Where in the world is it located? _____
10. Why are nearly all the illustrations in chapter 2 drawings and not photographs?

11. What musical instrument is pictured on page 47? _____
12. If you were a crime scene investigator, why would the picture on page 48 be familiar?

13. Where did Sumerians get their wood? (page 61) _____
14. Two forms of entertainment are pictured on page 64. Which one could be played by two people? _____
15. How many pyramids are visible on page 70? _____
16. What building material is being manufactured in the illustration on page 77?

17. Who excavated the tomb of Tutankhamen? (page 86) _____
18. What strange-looking one-humped beast is illustrated on page 92? _____
19. Identify two of the animals on the seals pictured on page 98? _____

20. What are Mr. Dubois's 3 rules? ^① _____
^② _____
^③ _____